NATCAPAC receives individual PAC contribution data through employer payroll deduction data from the employer, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) bi-weekly. When NATCAPAC received the pay period 12 data, it realized that the file was incorrect. NATCAPAC has notified FAA that the data is incorrect and has requested a corrected file. FAA has contracted with Department of Interior to provide its payroll services, so FAA could not provide NATCAPAC with a guaranteed date of correction. Because NATCAPAC relies upon FAA for correct data with regard to individual employee contributions, NATCAPAC cannot determine at this time the correct itemized dollar amounts for each contributor. However, the total amount of contributions has been verified as correct through bank records. Therefore, NATCAPAC has listed the contributions for pay period 12 as unitemized receipts. NATCAPAC will amend its filing as soon as it has received corrected data from the employer and can verify the accuracy of that data.
