To Whom It May Concern:

We are in receipt of the letter from the Commission regarding the above referenced report. Please see below for our complete response.

The excessive contributions in question were all temporarily excessive pending re-attribution to a spouse. The excessive portions of contributions from Stephan Cossack and Paul Walser were re-attributed to their respective spouses and those transactions were reflected on the Year End Report we filed with the commission. The excessive portion of the contribution from Robert Martin was refunded and also reflected on the Year End Report we filed with the commission. The request for re-attribution for the contribution from Charles McCrossan was not returned in time and the excessive portion of his contribution will be reflected on our upcoming April Quarterly Report.

Thank you for the opportunity to respond. Please contact us if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,
Jennifer Niska, Treasurer
Emmer for Congress
