

I entered an opening balance for January 1, 2008 on FEC file line 6(a) that I believed to be correct. As a result of your letter, I reviewed our 2007 reports, and determined that correction was needed. I amended the 2007 reports. I have amended our 2008 reports as a consequence of the amendments in the 2007 reports. There is no discrepancy between the December 2007 closing balance and the January 2008 opening balance.
