Re: Committee to Elect Sean Summers
C00512509
Debt resolution plan

Dear Ms. Kelly:

I am the Treasurer for the Committee to Elect Sean Summers. Having lost in the primary election, I have been asked to formally close the campaign with the FEC. The campaign incurred indebtedness in the form of loans exclusively from the candidate, Mr. Sean Summers. No third parties are involved.

Per a conversation with Ms. Sugarman today, I am enclosing a letter signed by Mr. Summers discharging the Campaign of any obligation to repay the loans. Upon receiving a notification from you that the debt resolution plan is cleared, I will immediately file an FEC 3 form electronically to terminate the Campaign.

I can be reached at jng@gvafirm.com or by phone at (717) 848-8455 if you have any questions or concerns.

Respectfully,

Joseph N. Gothie

I, Sean E. Summers, do discharge all loan obligations owed to me under a series of three notes issued to the Campaign to Elect Sean Summers in exchange for return by the Campaign to me of any excess funds remaining following payment to all vendors and third parties. It is the understanding at the time of the execution of this document that no outstanding invoices or debts remain to be paid other than the personal loans I made to the Campaign and that approximately $1,066.38 remains in the Campaign checking account. I agree to accept that amount in full satisfaction of the amount owed to me by the Campaign.

Sean E. Summers, Esq.
