

In response to the Commission's letter dated March 2, 2009, the temporary negative balance disclosed on the year end report was the result of an internal accounting error by the consulting firm who handles the committee's FEC filings. While checks were drafted that exceeded the amount in the account, these checks were not presented before the committee corrected the error. The year end report reflected the positive balance of the committee. The committee regrets the error.

*****