Dear Mr. Valente:

On April 26, 2000, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your May 10, 2000 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-Your letter states that all administrative expenses have been disclosed on Schedule B as payments for telephone service and office supplies and that you do not incur any charges for rent or utilities. However, you still do not disclose salary payments to individuals providing services to your committee.

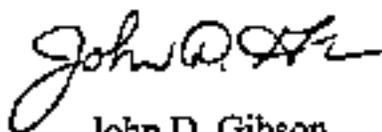

Please provide a more detailed explanation of how these expenses are paid or whether services (i.e., a person's time) are being volunteered or contributed as exempt legal and accounting services. If these expenses are being paid by a connected organization, your Statement of Organization must be amended to reflect this relationship.

If this information is not received by the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice, the Commission may choose to initiate audit or legal enforcement action.

If you should have any questions related to this matter, please contact Antoinette

Kitchen on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 1, then press 2 to reach the Reports Analysis Division) or our local number (202) 694-1130.

Sincerely,

John D. Gibson
Assistant Staff Director
Reports Analysis Division
