Dear Mr. Phillips

I am writing in response to your two letters dated March 26, 2003 regarding the above-captioned reports. In the original filings, we have mistakenly reported the wrong election type and/or year for certain contributions. Such errors have been corrected and the amended reports are enclosed. Also enclosed is a copy of a refund request regarding an excessive contribution.

I trust you would find the above satisfactory. Should you have further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Yours truly

Dear Ms. Wehrle:

We have been informed by the Federal Election Commission that $1,000 of our $2,000 September 2002 contribution to Senator Rockefeller's campaign exceeds the statutory limit because ExpPAC is not a multi-candidate PAC and the primary election had already occurred. As a result, we must request a refund of $1,000.

We would appreciate your transmitting the refund to the following address:
