Dear Mr. Jones,

The Committee is in receipt of your letter dated June 13, 2016.

The treasurer is an experienced accountant who has prepared financial forms for the Young family for generations. However, he was never a treasurer on a federal campaign. This was his first time preparing FEC forms for a congressional candidate. He acted in good faith, reading through the instructions and calling the FEC on several occasions to check on whether he was filing correctly.

It was Michele Young herself, a first-time candidate, who contacted the FEC over a technical issue and learned of the need for further corrections. In good faith, Michele immediately hired an experienced Washington compliance firm to take over the work and before a letter was sent to the campaign. Compliance is everything to this first-time candidate.

Please be advised that we have filed an amended April Quarterly Report as well as a 12-Day Pre-Primary Report. Those amendments address items 1, 2, 3, and 5 in your letter.

Regarding item 4 in your letter: Unfortunately, as first-time filers, we were not aware of the 48-Hour Reporting requirement. The Committee takes its reporting responsibilities very seriously and has established processes to ensure accurate and timely filing of all FEC reports, including 48-Hour reports.

We hope that this information adequately addresses your concerns. If you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.
