

This submission is to inform the Commission that the committee has established an additional bank account that will be used to make independent expenditures only.

This committee intends to use this account to accept unlimited contributions from all sources including unions and corporations. The account is being established in accordance with the recent case Carey v. FEC.
