Dear Ms. Needles:

The Republican Majority Fund retains the firm of Williams & Jensen to administer the PAC's account. The firm is also the custodian of the PAC's records. As such, the monthly fee the PAC pays the firm includes what the PAC would otherwise pay for rent, phones, salaries, office equipment, supplies, utilities and most, if not all, other administrative-type expenses to which your letter of January 23, 2002 refers.

Also, please be advised that the Fund includes a request for name, address, occupation and employer in all its solicitation materials. If a contribution is received without the necessary information, a letter is sent to the donor within 30 days requesting the information, along with a stamped return envelope with the Fund's address. If the information is obtained as a result of the latter, then it is provided on the next FEC report.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Barbara W. Bonfiglio
Assistant Treasurer
