Michelle Lee Grant Senior Campaign Finance analyst Reports Analysis Division Federal Election Commission Washington, D.C.20463 Dear Ms. Grant: This letter is in response to yours of December 11, 2007, and to advise you of several previously unreported expenses, report a returned contribution and report the combining of a contributor's data files. You questioned the disclosure of $334,376.53 of un-itemized individual contributions. It is our belief that all of these contributions are from contributors where the aggregate contribution for the election cycle does not exceed $200. You also asked for clarification regarding a $1,266.20 receipt from Mary Brownback in Offsets to Operating Expenditures. On May 25, 2007, the campaign purchased four airline tickets to San Juan, PR, at a cost of $2,532.40 for the Senator, two of his children and a staff member for a fundraising event. The May 25 expenditure to Delta Airlines can be found in a memo expense in this report. On July 24, 2007, Mary Brownback reimbursed the committee $1,266.20 for the children's airfare. This receipt was recorded as an offset to the May 25 expenditure. Upon review of the October 15, 2007, report, I noted expenditures (all on September 27, 2007) to Access National Bank for $39.89 for bank fees; $485.92 to Access National Bank for additional bank fees; $99.16 to Discover Card for credit card fees; $59.79 to American Express for credit card fees; and $543.24 to BB&T Merchant for credit card fees had not been reported. These expenses are included in this amendment. On September 13, 2007, the campaign received a check in the amount of $400 from Yong-Ha Lee. This check was entered into our data base, but was never deposited when it was learned that Mr. Lee was not a United States citizen. This contribution has been removed from this report. Finally, multiple data files for Jack Hahn of Pittsville, WI were combined. Please advise if you have additional questions. Sincerely, T.C. Anderson Treasurer
