The reason the contributions at issue were reported late is that the Executive Director had a family emergency out of state; her father had a stroke. In the urgency of leaving the state, the Executive Director unintentionally left behind an envelope with contributions that were to be dropped off at the Treasurers office the next day. An office assistant located these contributions after the original report was filed. Therefore an amendment was filed in order to comply. This was a one-time situation which will not be repeated. We have implemented a reporting system to ensure timely and accurate reporting in order to meet all rules and laws.
