This memo is in regard to an inquiry from an analyst regarding two expenditures reported on the Committee's 2016 Post-General Election report.

The two expenditures in question were paid to Work for Progress for door-to-door voter contact in opposition to Donald J. Trump and were disseminated starting on 10/7/2016, and disbursed on 10/27/2016. The amounts of the expenditures are $37,398.34 and $10,615.05.

These expenditures were included in a larger expenditure reported on the 24-hour report filed by the Committee on 10/7/2016 for $298,873.75. That reported expenditure also included an expenditure of $278,555.85 reported by the Committee on the Pre-General Election report.

The reason that the total expenditures exceeded the amounts reported on the 24-hour report was that those expenditures included funds which were applied to activities which took place on 11/7/2016 and 11/8/2016, after the end of the timely reporting period.

The Committee has confirmed that the total amount which it paid to Work for Progress for expenditures in opposition to Donald J. Trump during the timely reporting period ($611,447.61) does not exceed the total amount which it reported on 48- or 24-hour reports ($626,877.87). The total amount which the Committee paid to Work for Progress for expenditures in opposition to Donald J. Trump during the 2016 election cycle ($654,228.36) does exceed the amount reported on 48- and 24-hour reports, because $42,780.75 in expenditures were for activities which took place after the end of the timely reporting period.
