

RECEIVED
FEC MAIL ROOM

AUG 12 P 2 58

9 August 2002

Mr. John D. Gibson
Assistant Staff Director
Reports Analysis Division
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street NW - Rm. 706
Washington, DC 20463
Re: C00276659

Dear Mr. Gibson:

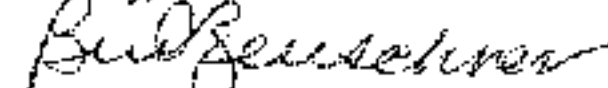

Thank you for your recent Mailgram concerning our late finance report. Also, I spoke with two of your assistants by phone and they helped clarify several questions and also suggested I write to explain why our report is late. I am enclosing the report.

The reason this report is late, as I mentioned on the phone, is that our previous treasurer Evelyn Reichel resigned last month. I was out of the country on a tour of China until last week. When I returned, there was a box of materials waiting for me at our headquarters office with a note: "Please file this report." Since we had no other treasurer in this all volunteer office, it fell to me to do the report. The previous treasurer kept all the information on QuickBooks, which I first saw last Tuesday. It took a few days to learn the basic operating skills for this program, and then I was able to generate the data to complete this report. I have used the previous report as my guide and used our checkbook and bank statements for the data. I have copies of all these documents should you need them as well as copies of cancelled checks.

I am hopeful that you would consider accepting this report without any fines due to my absence and my recent acquisition of this duty. If this report is free of major errors, then I expect I will be much better able to produce the next one on time. As I read the information, we will have another report due in September. Your assistant also gave me your website address so that I can change the name you have for our treasurer (- that name is currently four years out of date!).

Again, thank you for time, assistance and consideration.

Sincerely,

Bud Zeuschner, Chair
San Luis Obispo County Democratic Central Committee (CA)
Acting Treasurer
