This amendment is needed to realign starting balances with the previous FEC report and to correct typographical errors in data entry. Procedures have been reviewed and adjusted to avoid these types of errors being encountered in preparing future reports of the Committee. The Fairfax County Democratic Committee is an all volunteer organization. We have no paid staff, and no other organization pays any staff who devote any portion of their time to the Committee's political activities. As such, activities in support of candidates are largely volunteer exempt activities. Furthermore, in the 2007 year of a two year election cycle, the Committee supports only candidates for non federal, or state and local political offices. Fund raising is strictly for benefit of the Committee and not for any named candidate. None of the expenditures or receipts resulting from party fund raising are attributable to any federal candidate. The Committee has opted not to allocate its administrative expenses pursuant to regulation. Instead, all administrative expenses of the Committee are paid from the Committee's Federal Account, including expenses which might otherwise be allocated to the Committee's Non-Federal Account.

The Committee benefitted from in kind non federal space in this non federal election year. The in kind donation was duly reported to the State Board of Elections as in kind contributions to our non federal account. This reimbursement to the donor landlord was for utilities consumed while the in-kind space was occupied by non federal candidates during 2007. Although there were no federal candidates involved in the use of in kind, donated space, all administrative expenses of the Committee are paid with Federal funds.
