With regard to your letter dated June 12, 2002, the Republican Majority Fund retains a law firm to house and administer its PAC. Usual administrative expenses to which you refer are included in the firm's retainer, including rent, phones, faxes, etc., and the PAC does not have an office. With regard to the contributions to Rep. Ganske, the error was discovered before the Ganske committee cashed the checks. As a result, the checks were returned to RMF. This has all been reported on the report filed for the month of May.
