This report is being amended in response to the Commission's letter, dated 02/16/07. 1. All summary page, line item and allocable activity year to date totals have been corrected. 2. The transfer from ASDC Partnership Program was actually from ASDC Dollars for Democrats. 3. The Commission states that we do not appear to have any disbursements to Doru Martin to back up the offset received during this period. During 2006, the Committee reported over $19,000 in disbursements to this entity. 4. The voided disbursements on Line 29 were not reissued and are not in-kinds because they were at-will-contributions made by the Committee to non political organizations. 5. Of the $5,000 in transfers to the non federal account, $2,500 should not have been issued and was voided in January 2007. The remaining $2,500 was a cash-flow transfer and was not used to pay for federal activity out of a non federal account. 6. Our reports do not disclose any payroll related items on Line 30b because no employee spent over 25% of their compensated time on Federal activity. These were reported on Line 21a. 7. Purposes on Line 21a have been clarified. 8. Polling on Line 21a has been assigned the allocable ratio of Voter Drive. 9. When an H4 or H6 transaction is voided, the negative disbursement shows up in the transferable transaction lists in our software's H3 or H5 utility. This allows us to check off these voided transactions while choosing which transaction to make transfers for. This reduces the total that we can transfer by the amount of the voided transactions, which properly accounts for the non federal or Levin portion of these transactions. This is the method we used. 10. Schedule L has been corrected.
