

In preparing the 2008 Post-General, registrant worked with the Electronic Filing Office regarding completion of the report. However, this report was not successfully uploaded. When registrant learned that the Post-General was not successfully uploaded, it contacted the Electronic Filing Office for further assistance, resulting in successful uploading. Further, registrant contacted its FEC analyst to discuss filing difficulties.