The independent expenditure reported on August 16th, 2012 for an independent expenditure that was publicly disseminated on July 13th, 2012 in connection with Tennessee's 6th Congressional District election, was an additional payment to continue airing the public communication first disseminated on July 11th, 2012, and first reported as an independent expenditure on the report dated July 12th, 2012. In other words, this independent expenditure report is for a new expenditure of funds for an additional ad buy for the same advertisement. The Committee believed at the time that the first independent expenditure report covered the entire ad buy, but learned that the additional funds expended July 12th, 2012 actually was devoted to a second ad buy for the same communication.
