Dear Ms. Wall:

In response to your letter dated March 2, 1994 and pursuant to our telephone conversations, we have in the past, always paid our administrative expenses at the end of each year. For 1993, our total administrative expenses of $265.15 were paid and on December 29, 1993 and reported on our July 1 through December 31, 1993 filing. As you and I discussed, in the future, we will report and pay these expenses as they are incurred or, each quarter. For 1993, the expenses were incurred as follows:

February, 1993	$ 26.25
March, 1993	$ 97.06
July, 1993	$141.84

You also wrote to us regarding the fact that we reported our contribution to the Greater Washington Board of Trade Federal PAC on line 29 as "other", instead of on line 23. You indicated there was no need to amend the return, but to report any future contributions to political committees on line 23. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. If you have any questions or require further documentation, please call me.

Sincerely,

Judi Cunningham
