

In response to the FEC's September 12 request for a clarification of expenses reimbursed to the New York Bankers Association: $3,331.61 and $8,661.11 were paid to the law firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher for legal research and advice related to the PAC. The New York Bankers Association paid these bills and the PAC reimbursed the Association.