We recently requested that the Brownback For President Committee BFP be reopened for the purpose of paying an outstanding debt to Martin Gillespie, a former member of the BFP staff. Because of the size of the obligation, and out of an abundance of caution, we determined that reopening the campaign account would be prudent, as it would ensure that the transactions would become a part of the public record. The debt payment to Mr. Gillespie on this report was for out-of-pocket expenses that he incurred over the course of the closing months of the campaign. Unfortunately there was a misunderstanding about paying the bill when it arrived and we inadvertently overlooked the debt on later reports. When Mr. Gillespie returned to the organization after our Termination Report had been accepted by the Commission and informed the campaign of the oversight along with an additional request for funds, we confirmed that the obligation was legitimate and began the process of figuring out how best to pay him. After consultation with legal counsel, we asked that the account be re-opened, received a loan from Senator Brownback, paid Mr. Gillespie for all outstanding reimbursements with interest. In the coming months, we will attempt to raise funds to pay down the campaign's loan from the Senator. We are in the process of filing all reports for 2008. T.C. Anderson, Treasurer
