Dear Mr. Ciaraldi:

The above referenced reports have raised questions by your office concerning the administrative expenses of the Armenian American Political Action Committee. Our PAC is a small PAC with no employees, offices, utilities, telephone service, office equipment or supplies.

Volunteers donate the administrative costs and miscellaneous postage, etc. The only reportable contributions for such services have been reported as In-Kind Contributions by the undersigned. I estimate the value of the services I provide and report those on the quarterly reports.

We regret our reporting was such that it created questions regarding our administrative expenses. If you have any further questions regarding these administrative expenses please let me know. My telephone number is: 940/382-5567.

Sincerely,

Jim Horn
Assistant Treasurer

Dear Mr. Ciaraldi:

Schedule B of the above referenced report reflects a contribution to Congressman Lloyd Doggett for $500.00 on April 2, 2000. Our contribution was in response to a fund raising letter sent by the Doggett campaign for the primary election and we reported as such.

We now realize that even though the contribution was sent in response to a primary campaign request that we responded after the primary and should have reported the contribution as a General election item.

Having brought this oversight to our attention we will file an amended report, which should be completed by the time this letter reaches your desk.

We regret the inexperience of our volunteers caused an inappropriate report to be filed. If you have any further questions regarding this report and our corrective actions please let me know. My telephone number is: 940/382-5567.

Sincerely,

Jim Horn

Dear Mr. Ciaraldi:

Schedule B of the above referenced report reflects a contribution to Congressman James Rogan for $1,500.00. I misread the chart on page 17 of the FEC Campaign Guide and first thought our PAC was a "Nonconnected PAC (Multicandidate)" with a $5,000.00 limit and so informed our contribution committee.

When you brought this oversight to our attention we now understand our PAC is a "Nonconnected PAC (Not Multicandidate)" with a $1,000.00 limit. We have enclosed a copy of our letter to Congressman Rogan's Campaign requesting a refund of the excess above the $1,000.00 limit. Upon receipt, the refund will be properly reported.

We regret the inexperience of our volunteers caused an inappropriate contribution. If you have any further questions regarding this contribution and our corrective actions please let me know. My telephone number is: 940/382-5567.

Sincerely,

Jim Horn

Dear Campaign Treasurer:

The Federal Election Commission has notified our office of an inappropriate contribution we made to your Committee. We now realize that our new PAC is limited to a maximum contribution of $1,000.00 because we have not yet qualified as a Nonconnected PAC (Multicandidate).

We must request your Committee refund the $500.00 excess contribution we made above the Federal Election Commission limit of $1,000.00. Upon receipt of your refund we will properly report it to the Federal Election Commission.

We realize you had no way of knowing we were not qualified to send the $1,500.00 contribution and sincerely regret having to request the refund. We have enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your convenience.

We apologize for having to request the refund and for creating more work for your Committee. I can be reached at : 940 / 382 - 5567 should you have any questions. If we can ever be of service to you in the future please let us know.

Sincerely,

Jim Horn
Assistant Treasurer
