REF: 2007 Year End Report, your letter of March 7

Dear Mr. Morse:

In looking over the line 21b items for the report in question, I find that I neglected to type "generic" after a number of expenditure explanations, namely:

Advanced Mailing Services, 8/10/07, $7316.24

" " " , 8/29/07, $1152.15

Sunrise Data Service, 8/23/07, $305.00

" " " , 9/12/07, $243.24

" " " , 10/3/07, $405.00

America's Political Action Committee has never engaged in independent expenditures and these items did not fund activity to benefit a particular candidate; they are generic.

It is not clear to me if I need to forward an amended report under these circumstances or only if the items were indeed independent expenditures.

Sincerely,

James B. Taylor
