

Dear Mr. Pope,

As your letter sent on October 23, 2007 requests, Friends of Connie Mack follow's the FEC's requirements for "Best Efforts."

First, the committee's original solicitation includes a clear and obvious request for the contributor information and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information.

Secondly, within 30 days of the receipt of the contribution, we make one follow-up, effort by mail or e-mail to obtain this information if it is not provided. We request the missing information without soliciting a contribution. Our notice informs the contributor of the federal requirements for reporting such information, and the committee includes a pre-addressed return envelope with every request sent by mail. Written records are kept documenting such requests.

When we receive contributor information after a contribution has been reported we either amend the appropriate report or we file the information with our next regularly scheduled report as an amended memo Schedule A. Our Year End report will have an amended memo Schedule A with the updated contributor information we receive.

Sincerely,

Craig Engle
Treasurer
