Re: Your Notice dated December 30, 1999
Your Notice dated January 5, 2000

Encl: (1) The National PAC FEC monthly filing for the period December 1-31, 1999
(2) Corrected pages for The National PAC February 1999 Monthly Report
(3) Copies of the subject notices

Dear Mr. Walker:

This letter is forwarded in response to the subject inquiries. The National PAC has relied upon Capitol Hill Software (now VOCUS) as its PAC software vendor for the past five years, as do many PACs throughout this area. We pay them large sums of money to provide us what they assure is compliant and accurate reporting software. We filed a request for approval of our forms, in accordance with 11 CFR 104.2(d), many years ago. Owing to the passage of time and a recent office move, we are unable to unearth the original approval. Notwithstanding that we have filed under the exact same format for the past five years without prior objection from your offices, and that I am unable to identify a single substantive difference between our forms and those prescribed officially by the FEC at this writing, I am resubmitting enclosure (1) for the explicit purpose of an expedited review in accordance with 11 CFR 104.2(d). Should you identify any necessary changes, please provide immediately a letter detailing those changes.

Regarding the second notice specifically, and as I indicated to you during our conversation on January 10, 2000, we were previously advised by the FEC to account for Richard Altman on line "11U" (which itemizes the receipt on Schedule A while accounting for it as an unitemized receipt on the Detailed Summary Page). We are uncertain of the reasoning that prompted this requirement previously, although it appears to have related to his prior employment as Executive Director of The National PAC. This accounts fully for the differential cited in the notice. Enclosure (2) is therefore provided solely for the purpose of undoing this prior guidance and resolving this matter expeditiously. The pages enclosed should be substituted for those in the original filing as applicable. All other pages in the original report are unaffected.

The National PAC has constantly made every effort to be timely and accurate in its reporting. During my four years as the Director of Finance, we previously received only two formal inquiries from the FEC, and both addressed genuine concerns. We have now received two additional FEC notices within the past twelve days alone. We are appalled at the imposition of these notices, with strict 15-day deadlines, while in the midst of trying to accommodate demanding FEC and state reporting deadlines. It would appear for items as trivial as these that a phone call, rather than formal notices, would as easily achieve resolution. We have not deviated from our reporting practices during the past five years, and do not understand why previously sanctioned practices are suddenly offenses. We would appreciate, in addition to the form review requested, some plausible, detailed explanation. If there are any questions concerning this submission, I may be reached weekdays at (202) 418-2230. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Warren E. O'Hearn
