Requests for Additional Information by E-Mail

Gentlemen:

I serve as treasurer of English First Political Victory Fund ("EFPVF").

EFPVF recently received an e-mail from the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") announcing that the Reports Analysis Division intends to send Requests for Additional Information ("RFAs") to a committee by e-mail beginning in October 2011, unless the committee files a document with the FEC stating a preference to continue receiving such RFAs on paper by U.S. mail.

EFPVF hereby requests that the Reports Analysis Division continue to send any such RFAs on paper by U.S. mail to the committee.

Sincerely yours,

Walter J. Olson
