1. Names in the News is an independent commercial list broker that trades the Committee's mailing lists at fair market value rates. The Committee uses a commercial broker to ensure that the usual and normal amounts are charged and has no role in determining either the amounts charged or the fees it receives. 2. Schedule B Line 23 is amended to provide the office, state & district for each contribution and earmarked contribution. 3. All earmarked contributions are appropriately itemized on Sch. A & B. Earmarked contributions received at the end of a reporting period and forwarded to the designated candidate during the next reporting period are reported on Sch. A in the period the contribution is received and on Sch. B in the period the contribution is forwarded. 4. Election designations are provided for all contributions the Committee makes to candidates. Election designations are reported for earmarked contributions when a specific designation is received from an individual contributor.
