Dear, Maryellen

We received a letter from the FEC requesting clarification on a contribution we made to the Volunteers for Shimkus campaign on 03/20/02. We designated the contribution to the 2002 primary election. However, as the FEC noted, the primary election was on 03/19/02. Since more than 60 days has past since the contribution was made we are unable to change the designation to the general election and must ask for a refund of the contribution. Please find an enclosed, new contribution of $2500 for the general election

I am sorry for the inconvenience. Thank you and best of luck in the election.

Sincerely,
