Transfers shown on Schedule H4 to the non-federal account were made for refunds/reimbursements received by the Committee and shown on Schedule A Line 15. The refunds/reimbursements were made by former employees of the Committee for COBRA health insurance payments made by the Committee to Humana and by the Texas Federation of Republican Women for sub-lease rent and postage. The payments to the vendors (900 Congress and Pitney Bowes) are reported within this report. Reimbursements were made either prior to the expenditure or within a commercially reasonable time. Transfers from the non-federal account during this reporting period included significant amount for the non-federal share of allocable expenditures made in the preceding month, but within the sixty days permitted. Please note that the fundraising activities disclosed on line 21b are not FEA fundraising activities. In order to comply with the Commissions best efforts process, the Committee takes the following steps. In the Committees initial solicitation, the Committee asks each donor for no less than the following information: full name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer. Upon receipt of this information, the Committee records it for each donor. Next, within thirty days (normally fifteen days) of receipt of a contribution from a donor for which we do not have occupation and employer information, we send a letter to the donor that both thanks the donor and again requests that the donor provide us with their occupation and employer information. This letter includes a statement about the requirements of federal law. This letter is also accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope. In addition, all information received by the Committee is reported. The Committee notes on Schedule D a credit amount incurred for Smart DM, Inc. This was from a credit memo issued by Smart DM, Inc. for incorrect invoice pricing from previous month.
