Our original solicitation includes a clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information.

If the information is not provided, we make follow-up efforts to obtain this information, regardless of whether the contribution(s) was solicited or not. This effort occurs no later than 30 days after receipt of the contribution.

We follow four steps:

1. Request additional information in writing with a pre-addressed envelope.
2. If an e-mail is available we follow-up with an e-mail request.
3. A phone call is made to the contributor to obtain needed information.
4. The internet is used to either google search the individual or facebook the individual.

The requests:

- Clearly ask for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution;
- Inform the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information, and
- If the request is written, include a pre-addressed post card or return envelope.
