 Attn: Ryan Furman, Reports Analysis Division
 Reference: April Quarterly Report (02/15/2018 - 03/31/2018)

Dear Ryan Furman:
 This letter is in response to the request for additional information, dated May 28, 2018.

Regarding the contributions from an individual that appear to be excessive, we refunded this individual the amount of her excessive contribution on May 3, 2018. This refund will be reported on the July Quarterly report.

Regarding the contribution from the committee not qualified for Multi-Candidate Status, we have refunded the excessive portion of the contribution, and it will be reported on the July Quarterly report.

Regarding the contribution that appears to be from a corporation, we did not receive a response back to our original inquiry and therefore we refunded this contribution. This refund will appear on the July Quarterly report.

Regarding the receipt disclosed with the description of "Void of Check Dated 2/8/18.", this check was voided due to a billing error. The vendor subsequently sent an updated invoice and we disclosed a payment for the updated amount on Schedule B.

Regarding the contributions on Schedule B that appear to exceed the limits, our understanding is the limit is $5,000 per calendar year. As the first contribution for $5,000 was made in 2017 and the second contribution was made in 2018, it is our understanding that these contributions are not over the limit as they occurred in different years.

Respectfully submitted,
 Jose Villareal, Treasurer
 Castro for Congress
