In response to your letter June 15, 2005:

1. The SCGOP is using the following best effort to obtain identification of all individuals who contribute in excess of $ 200. Our original solicitation includes a clear and conspicuous request for this information and informs the contributor of the requirements of the federal law for reporting such information. If the information is not provided, we make an oral follow up, stand alone effort no later than 30 days after receipt of the contribution, which we document in writing, to obtain this information whether the contribution was solicited or not. We clearly ask for the missing information, without soliciting a contribution and inform the contributor of the requirements of federal law for the reporting of such information. If the needed information is still not provided, we search the internet to obtain the information. If we receive additional information we are either making an amendment for the period in question or add a memo stating the changes with our next filing.

2. For November Montly 2003, amended 6/22/04:

no additional information about contributors has been obtained since our last amendment on 7/18/05.

3. For December Monthly 2003, amended 6/22/04:

no additional information about contributors has been obtained since our last amendment on 7/18/05.

4. For Year-End 2003, amended 6/22/04:

no additional information about contributors has been obtained since our last amendment on 7/18/05.

5. For September Monthly 2004, amended 7/7/05:

no additional information about contributors has been obtained since our last amendment on 7/7/05.
