RE: 12 Day Special Pre-Primary Report (7/1/01 - 8/5/01)

ID #: C00024521

Dear Ms. Kang:

In response to your letter dated May 8th, 2002, the Association of Trial Lawyers of America Political Action Committee (ATLA PAC), filed an amendment to its 12 Day Special Pre-Primary Report on May 31, 2002.

In the interest of full and complete disclosure, I wanted to bring the following clarifications to your immediate attention:

ATLA PAC received the following permissible partnership contributions, however, in several instances, the attribution (in part or in full) did not reach the $200 itemization threshold and therefore was not attributed on the Schedule A for Line 11(a):

Driscoll & Gibson: $20.00 on 7/13/01

Driscoll & Gibson: $20.00 on 7/13/01

Driscoll & Gibson: $20.00 on 8/09/01

Driscoll & Gibson: $20.00 on 8/09/01

Rutter Walsh Mills & Rutter: $10.00 on 8/06/01

Mindell, Panzer & Malin, Esq.: $10.00 on 7/23/01

Mindell, Panzer & Malin, Esq.: $10.00 on 8/23/01

McCamic & McCamic: $25.00 on 7/23/01

McCamic & McCamic: $25.00 on 8/24/01

Clayton, Myrick, McClanahan: $18.75 on 7/27/01

Clayton, Myrick, McClanahan: $18.75 on 7/27/01

Clayton, Myrick, McClanahan: $18.75 on 8/28/01

Clayton, Myrick, McClanahan: $18.75 on 8/28/01

Horowitz, Tannenbaum & Silver: $37.50 on 8/23/01

Bates & Lee Ltd.: $25.00 on 7/10/01

Bates & Lee Ltd.: $25.00 on 8/09/01

I hope that this letter as well as ATLA PAC's amendment to its 12 Day Special Pre-Primary report address the concerns raised in your letter to the FEC's satisfaction.

Thank you for all your assistance and please do not hesitate to contact me with any further concerns.

ATLA PAC takes compliance with federal election law very seriously and strives for complete and accurate disclosure.

Sincerely,
