This letter is in response to FEC inquiries regarding the 2001 Mid-Year and 2002 April, July and October Quarterly reports.

The letter inquires as to the limited amount of administrative expenses of the PAC.

The PAC is an internet based organization with two part-time employees and a volunteer executive director.

All persons associated with the PAC work from their homes and communicate with each other via email and telephone. The PAC does not maintain a headquarter office.

All equipment used by the PAC, including computers and servers were purchased in previous reporting periods.

All telephone and connectivity expenses are paid by the PAC.

The PAC has not received any in-kind contributions for any operating expenses.
