

To further clarify our national independent expenditures in connection with candidate for President:

Any national expenditure supporting Barack Obama during the primary season was disseminated to all states and territories eligible to vote for the Democratic nomination at that time and 24 and 48 hour notices were filed if the reporting thresholds were triggered in any state.

Any national expenditure opposing John McCain was intended to influence the general election.
