Federal Election Commission
999 E Street NW
Washington D.C., 20463

Dear Mr. Gibson,

Thank you for your letter of March 2, 1999.

Please know that on February 21 American Right to Life sent our 1998 Year End Report to the FEC via regular mail.

The reason for the delay is that I attempted once again to acclimate our report to FEC File 2.01. Unfortunately, I encountered some data entry problems as I attempted to show previous debts and beginning cash on hand to reflect our previous report.

It was only until a few days ago that I figured out that there is a technical support line for me to call to help fix such problems.

After spending a considerable amount of time on trying to resolve this problem I finally gave up and did the report the old fashion way.

In the past all of my reports have been timely. I apologize for the delay this time.

Sincerely,

Patrick Mooney
Chairman

Federal Election Commission
