Ms. Olaimy,

I am writing with regard to contributions made to Friends of Rahm Emanuel from the Pharmaceutical Care Management Association Political Action Committee (PCMA PAC).

PCMA PAC made two contributions to the Friends of Rahm Emanuel, one on 1/17/2007 in the amount of $2,000, and a second on 2/27/2008 in the amount of $1,000.

Regrettably, PCMA PAC does not qualify as a multicandidate committee, and as such is subject to the contribution limit of $2,300 per candidate or candidate committee per election.

In our last electronic FEC filing, the designation field was left blank, and therefore both contributions were allocated to the next scheduled federal election, in this case the February 5, 2008 primary. As a result, our second contribution exceeded the individual contribution limit by $700.

Because receipt of the contribution was made more than 60 days prior, the FEC has informed PCMA PAC that it is too late to re-designate these funds. Rather, we must obtain a refund of the excessive amount from Friends of Rahm Emanuel.

We apologize for this inconvenience, and will happily send a check for the comparable amount of $700 to be properly designated for the 2008 general election. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Missy Jenkins

Ms. Bacon Irwin,

I am writing with regard to contributions made to John Kerry for Senate from the Pharmaceutical Care Management Association Political Action Committee (PCMA PAC).

PCMA PAC made two contributions to the John Kerry for Senate, each in the amount of $2,300 on March 11, 2008. Regrettably, PCMA PAC does not qualify as a multicandidate committee, and as such is subject to the contribution limit of $2,300 per candidate or candidate committee per election.

While the first contribution was designated to the primary election, and the second to the general, the designation field was left blank in our last FEC filing. As a result, both contributions were allocated to the next scheduled federal election, in this case the September 16, 2008 primary. Therefore, we exceeded the individual contribution limit by $2300.

Because receipt of the contribution was made more than 60 days prior, the FEC has informed PCMA PAC that it is too late to re-designate these funds. Rather, we must obtain a refund of the excessive amount from John Kerry for Senate.

We apologize for this inconvenience, and will happily send a check for the comparable amount of $2300 to be properly designated for the 2008 general election. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Mr. Wenck,

I am writing with regard to contributions made to Coleman for Senate 08 from the Pharmaceutical Care Management Association Political Action Committee (PCMA PAC).

PCMA PAC made two contributions to Coleman for Senate 08, one on 7/13/2007 in the amount of $1,000, and a second on 2/28/2008 in the amount of $2,000.

Regrettably, PCMA PAC does not qualify as a multicandidate committee, and as such is subject to the contribution limit of $2,300 per candidate or candidate committee per election.

In our last electronic FEC filing, the designation field was left blank, and therefore both contributions were allocated to the next scheduled federal election, in this case the September 9, 2008 primary. As a result, our second contribution exceeded the individual contribution limit by $700.

Because receipt of the contribution was made more than 60 days prior, the FEC has informed PCMA PAC that it is too late to re-designate these funds. Rather, we must obtain a refund of the excessive amount from Coleman for Senate 08.

We apologize for this inconvenience, and will happily send a check for the comparable amount of $700 to be properly designated for the 2008 general election. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Mr. Hodson,

I am writing with regard to contributions made to McConnell Senate Committee '08 from the Pharmaceutical Care Management Association Political Action Committee (PCMA PAC).

PCMA PAC made two contributions to the McConnell Senate Committee, one on 2/12/2007 in the amount of $2,000, and a second on 3/27/2008 in the amount of $1,000.

Regrettably, PCMA PAC does not qualify as a multicandidate committee, and as such is subject to the contribution limit of $2,300 per candidate or candidate committee per election.

In our last electronic FEC filing, the designation field was left blank, and therefore both contributions were allocated to the next scheduled federal election, in this case the May 20, 2008 primary. As a result, our second contribution exceeded the individual contribution limit by $700.

Because receipt of the contribution was made more than 60 days prior, the FEC has informed PCMA PAC that it is too late to re-designate these funds. Rather, we must obtain a refund of the excessive amount from McConnell Senate Committee '08.
