Dear Ms. Manzano:

A review of the records of the National Air Traffic Controllers Association Political Action Committee (NATCA PAC) and the National Marine Engineers Beneficial Association (NMEBA), with whom we are affiliated, shows that we have made excessive contributions to various primary campaigns. The following list is of whom NATCA PAC has requested redesignations to the general election:

Senator Jim Inhofe	$1,000
Senator John Warner	$1,000
Congressman Bart Stupak	$ 500
Congressman David Bonior	$1,000
Senator Carl Levin	$1,000

I apologize for the error. Enclosed you will also find copies of the letters sent to the campaigns. If you have any questions, or need more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ilsa A. Oman

Dear Sir or Madam:

A review of the Federal Election contribution records of the National Air Traffic Controllers Association Political Action Committee (NATCA PAC) and the National Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association (NMEBA), with whom we are affiliated, discloses that your campaign committee has received contributions in excess of the $5,000 limit for the 1996 primary campaign.

In order to comply with federal election law, NATCA PAC would like to redesignate $1,000 of the excess contributions to Senator Inhofe's general election campaign. The re-designation should be credited to NATCA PAC.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
