RE: Response to August 23, 2013 Inquiry Letter (C00542779)

Dear Ms. Benitz:

This letter is in response to an inquiry I received on behalf of my client, CE Action Committee (ID # C00542779)

The inquiry requests clarification on $127,494.93 in debts disclosed on an amended pre-special report filed with the FEC. Additionally, the inquiry requests clarification on one or more independent expenditures that were not timely disclosed on a 48-hour report.

At the time the original pre-special report was filed, CE Action had only recently been created. Expenditures in connection with the Massachusetts's special election were the committee's first involvement in a federal election. When the committee decided to become involved in the Massachusetts special election it hired a number of political consultants in a short time frame. After the original pre-special report was filed, the committee received invoices from a number of consultants dating back to the period covered by this report. These invoices involved a number of additional expenses that had not been disclosed in connection with the independent expenditures reported on various 48-hour reports filed by CE Action.

The committee amended the pre-special report to include the previously undisclosed expenses prior to the Massachusetts special runoff election. The committee has now established a better system for tracking work done by consultants to facilitate timely reporting of accrued expenses and 48-hour reports. In addition, these expenses were not long-term debts. All debts have now been paid by the committee.

Finally, we have now filed amendments correcting the two reporting issues you noted in your letter.
