30-Day Post-General Report (10/14/04 - 11/22/04)

As previously reported concerning T. K. Eng, this organization is not a corporation. It is however a limited partnership with a corporation as a 1% partner. I learned this fact February 4, 2005. I have transferred the amount of the contribution equivalent to 1% to an account not used to influence federal elections and advised the contributor by letter that she is entitled to a refund. A copy of the check will be mailed to you. I have amended the report to reflect the donation from the partners.

Regarding the contributions from Jo Rae Davis, each contribution in question was an advance of funds for the purchase of various campaign items. Each was reported as a memo item so as not to inflate the cash on hand, and each was also reported on Schedule D as a debt to be repaid at a future time because they were not contributions.

Concerning the negative cash ending balance, once again, there were so many contributions because of the federal election that it was impossible to enter them all and meet the deadline for filing. I elected to meet the filing deadline and continue to input the contributions for a later amendment.

Regarding lack of payment for salary and wages, salary payments were reported on Line 21b. I have amended the report to reflect these payments on Line 30b.
