Dear Federal Election Commission:

In the attached Midyear FEC Report, PHIL-PAC reported a contribution from an ineligible Philip Morris employee, Jorge Devoto Stocker. Mr. Stocker was inadvertently solicited by PHIL-PAC earlier this year. PHIL-PAC, however, did not become aware of this situation until recently at which time we immediately contacted our payroll and personnel departments to correct our method of solicitation. In addition, we sent instructions to all our payroll and personnel contacts, again, to ensure that our solicitation methods were clear (See attached).

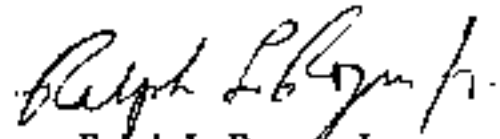

We are issuing a refund to Mr. Stocker. Attached please find a copy of the refund check for verification. Since it is being issued after the Midyear Report cut-off dates we will report it in our Year-end Report.

PHIL-PAC also reported a disbursement for the reimbursement of Wisconsin solicitation expenses in the attached report. I am attaching this explanation of the expense in order to prevent confusion.

Wisconsin law states that an organization may only spend a total of $500 for in-state solicitation expenses. Philip Morris Companies Inc., the connected organization which pays PHIL-PAC's operating expenditures, inadvertently spent an estimated $895.70 in the solicitation of Wisconsin residents. In order to comply with state law, PHIL-PAC reimbursed Philip Morris the excess money spent in the solicitation ($395.70).

Please contact me at (212) 880-2206 if you have any questions or need additional information. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ralph L. Rogers, Jr.

Dear Mr. Devoto Stocker :

Thank you for your generous contribution to our 1993 solicitation. We at PHIL-PAC truly appreciate your support.

Unfortunately, we must refund your contribution. PHIL-PAC is regulated by the Federal Election Commission which prohibits PAC's from accepting contributions from anyone that does not have US citizenship or a permanent US residence status.

Thank you again for your support. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (212) 880-2206.

SUBJECT: PHIL-PAC Personnel information

Enclosed for your information, please find a copy of the revised instructions for processing PHIL-PAC personnel tapes.

As you may or may not know, PHIL-PAC, or the Philip Morris Companies Inc. Political Action Committee, is an separate organization within Philip Morris with the authority to collect contributions from "eligible" Philip Morris employees and subsequently make contributions to candidates running for federal and state offices. PHIL-PAC is governed by law by the Federal Election Commission, an organization which establishes rules and regulations for all PACs, and therefore has a legal responsibility to abide by their regulations.

At present, we are particularly concerned with the regulations which govern the eligibility of employee contributors. According to the Federal Election Commission "eligible" employees must be executive and/or administrative personnel (exempt grade 9 and above in our case) who are not represented by a labor organization and who are U.S. citizens or have permanent U.S. residence status (green card).

Since there is such an abundance of personnel information needed for our organization, PHIL-PAC is dependent on the various Human Resource departments in each operating company to furnish us with personnel information. Each department sends us a tape of all eligible employees, based on the criteria mentioned above, which we in turn use for our reporting purposes.

Recently we came across a situation in which we discovered that an ineligible Philip Morris International employee had inadvertently been placed on the tape of eligible employees. This particular employee was one that did not have U.S. citizenship or permanent U.S. residence status. We would like to avoid any future occurrences of this kind. We would greatly appreciate it if you would review these procedures with all personnel responsible for handling the PHIL-PAC personnel tapes.

If you have any questions, or would like additional information, please contact me at extension 2206. Thank you.

cc: A. Carney

PHIL-PAC PAYROLL DEDUCTION INFORMATION & INSTRUCTIONS

PHIL-PAC--the Philip Morris Political Action Committee-- solicits and receives voluntary contributions from executive and administrative personnel within Philip Morris Companies Inc. and its operating companies. At most locations throughout the corporation the definition of executive and administrative personnel (referred to as the "restricted class" by the Federal Election Commission) includes employees in exempt salary grades 9 and above. According to federal regulations the following are not considered executive and administrative personnel:

- 1) Professionals represented by a labor organization;
- 2) Salaried foremen and others whose primary function is supervision of hourly employees; and
- 3) Former or retired personnel who are not stockholders.

In addition, Federal law prohibits us from either soliciting or accepting contributions from foreign nationals who do not have permanent U.S. residence status (green card).

Because we have access only to limited personnel information and none to salary grade information, PHIL-PAC depends on the various Personnel and Payroll Departments to make sure we are not soliciting any one outside the restricted class.

230386J3/6

Contributors to PHIL-PAC give either a direct gift (DG) or pledge a certain amount which would be deducted from their monthly salary check. Under the payroll deduction method, an employee may request a deduction of a specified amount (PD) or a Fair Share deduction (FS) be withheld. The Fair Share is 1/2 of 1% of gross annual salary divided into equal monthly deductions.

Both types of payroll deduction contributions are perpetual but the Fair Share deduction must be recalculated and increased automatically by the Payroll Department should the contributor receive a salary increase. This would be done without any notice from PHIL-PAC since we would not be told of the employee's salary increase. Any other changes to payroll deductions should only be made by the Payroll Department upon proper written notification by PHIL-PAC. If a contributor notifies the Payroll Department of his/her desire to change the deduction in any way, he/she should be asked to send written notification to PHIL-PAC and PHIL-PAC will in turn officially notify the Payroll Department of the change.

Following are the basic steps taken in the processing payroll deduction pledges:

1. Upon receipt by PHIL-PAC of any employee's original signed pledge card (see attached) which specifies the payroll deduction method, the information is entered into the PHIL-PAC data system.

23033956J3/7

2. PHIL-PAC sends out memoranda notifying the appropriate Payroll Departments of new or changed payroll deductions received by PHIL-PAC since the last payroll memorandum, usually once a month.
3. These payroll deduction requests are processed by the Payroll Department. If any names in that memo do not appear on the company's location's personnel lists, the Payroll Department would notify the PHIL-PAC Financial Assistant.
4. Whenever there are any payroll deductions being made, a check must be issued monthly to PHIL-PAC by the Payroll Department together with a list of the names of the contributors and the amount of each deduction for the current month.
5. The PHIL-PAC Financial Assistant double-checks this list against PHIL-PAC's records.

Of Special Note

Since PHIL-PAC issues monthly financial and campaign status reports to its Board of Directors, all deductions sent to PHIL-PAC should be for the current month. There should be no advance payments for amounts not yet withheld from an employee's paycheck, no payments made on a quarterly or yearly basis for amounts deducted from an employee's paycheck on a regular monthly or semi-monthly basis and no retroactive corrections unless requested.

9 3 J 3 3 3 3 6 J 3 7 3

Also because of these monthly reports, we need to receive the monthly Payroll Department check no later than the fifth business day of every month for the preceding month's deductions so that it can be processed and deposited in time to be included in the financial report. We ask that such checks be sent by Federal Express or other overnight delivery service to the address below.
