I am currently the President of the City Political Action Committee ("CityPAC") in Chicago, Illinois. I am writing this letter in response to your December 22, 1999 letter, John Gibson's January 13, 2000 letter, and the telephone conversation that you and I had yesterday afternoon.

Please be advised that during the reporting period in question, CityPAC was an all-volunteer organization with no offices and thus no employees, no rent, no telephone service, no office equipment or supplies, no salaries, and no utility expenses. Accordingly, all of the expenses referred to in your December 22, 1999 letter were adequately disclosed in CityPAC's 1999 Mid-Year Report.

Additionally, please note that the 1999 Mid-Year Report that CityPAC submitted bore an original signature of our treasurer's designated agent.

If you have any additional questions regarding these matters, please contact me at 312-578-6586.

Sincerely,

Peter M. Friedman
