

We recently received a notice from Analyst Melissa Meyer informing us of errors on lines 21(b), 21(c) and 23, Column B on our October Quarterly Report. Our research found that the error had, in fact, been made on our July report where a campaign contribution had incorrectly been coded as an operating expense. Yesterday we filed an amended July report which corrected the problem. Our October Quarterly Report figures are now correct.
