Re: Identification Number C00029504

Dear Ms. Sinram:

The International Union of Operating Engineers/Engineers Political Education Committee (IUOE/EPEC) has reviewed its recently filed FEC reports to ensure that the aggregate contributions made by IUOE/EPEC and the federal PACs with which it is affiliated are in compliance with contribution limits for the current election cycle. In so doing, IUOE/EPEC discovered a number of excessive contributions and has requested a refund from each of the campaigns to which it has made excessive contributions.

Please find enclosed a letter from IUOE/EPEC to the campaign of each of the following candidates requesting a refund of a portion of the contributions made by the IUOE/EPEC and its affiliated federal PACs: Congressman Henry Waxman Campaign Committee, Carney for Congress, Patrick Murphy for Congress, Israel for Congress, John Hall for Congress, Friends of Congressman Tim Holden, Friends of Jim Oberstar, and Tim Bishop for Congress. The dates of the contributions to the campaigns by IUOE/EPEC and its affiliated federal PACs are indicated on the enclosed letters.

IUOE/EPEC will report on its FEC reports the refunds received from each campaign.

Sincerely,

Christopher J. Hanley
Treasurer

Dear Treasurer:

The International Union of Operating Engineers/Engineers Political Education Committee (IUOE/EPEC) has reviewed its recently filed FEC reports to ensure that the aggregate contributions made by IUOE/EPEC and the federal PACs with which it is affiliated are in compliance with contribution limits for the current federal election cycle. In doing so, IUOE/EPEC discovered that IUOE/EPEC must seek a refund from your committee.

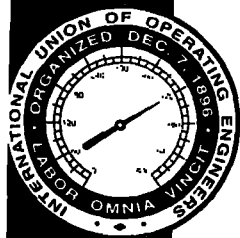

On July 17, 2007, "IUOE Local 12 Voluntary Legislative Fund" made a contribution of $5,000.00 to your committee designated for the 2008 Primary. On March 13, 2007, International Union of Operating Engineers/Engineers Political Education Committee made a $2,500 contribution also designated for the 2008 Primary. IUOE/EPEC and Local 12's federal PAC are affiliated political committees with common contribution limitations. Accordingly, your committee should process a check in the amount of $2,500.00 made payable to IUOE/EPEC in order to ensure compliance with FEC contribution limitations of $5,000 per election.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Christopher J. Hanley
Treasurer
