This report is amended in response to the Commission's letter of November 7 2013 requesting additional information on the 'ultimate vendor' involved in the transactions underlying the in-kind contributions from the candidate listed on Line 11d. Given the current capabilities of the Commission's software (FECfile) Moll for Congress is itemizing these vendors in memo entries on Schedule B with reference to the Schedule A transaction ID in the Purpose of Disbursement field. The FECfile software automatically creates a balancing disbursement entry on Schedule B when an in-kind receipt is created. This balancing entry cannot be deleted or modified without endangering the stability of the underlying database and risking a software crash. To avoid this problem this amended report contains in Schedule B both the automatically-generated balancing entries and memo entries specifying the 'ultimate vendor'. For clarity Moll for Congress has chosen to include all balancing entries. Although not required by 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4)(i) this level of specificity ensures that there is both a matching itemized disbursement and a matching memo entry for each in-kind receipt from the candidate. This clarifying amendment therefore increases the itemized disbursement total from $13033.93 to $13155.08.
