The Republican Member Senate Fund does not have a designated physical office nor any employees. All functions are performed through consultants or volunteers. Therefore, there is no rent, utility, payroll, or office expense reported by the Fund. Consultants are hired to raise funds and perform administrative tasks. Volunteers perform all other functions.

The majority of fundraising efforts are direct mail requests. All requests include a form requesting the contributor complete the name, address, occupation and employer name lines in accordance with Federal regulations. This data is rarely completed. We make follow up requests for this data in writing when we thank the contributor. The follow up letter contains a pre-addressed stamped envelope. The response to this request is also poor. Occasionally, we receive a response to our request or we obtain the information from another source. Our records are immediately updated for this information and the information is included on our next filing.
