This amended report replacing the November monthly report with the 12 day pre-election report, is due to the fact that our analyst informed me on November 1st when I called to inquire, that we weren't required to file such a report because we had no involvement, i.e. independent expenditures, within the window of time captured in this report. However after speaking with another analyst, this turned out to be incorrect information we were given, thus we are now filing the 12 day, pre-general report accordingly.
