Response to letter dated April 22, 2005; period covered 7/01/04-7/31/04. This response follows each bullet point. The contribution in question from American Federation of Teachers deposited in January is attributed to 2003. Under the advice of our legal counsel, we accepted the 2004 contribution for deposit on 07/09/04. These two contributions do not aggregate more than the limit allowed per FEC regulations. The autocall services were for generic voter file building functions and therefore were not deemed an FEA activity at the time. All interns that were contracted with the Democratic Party of SC at the time were not full time employees, nor were they performing functions that would be characterized as FEA. Each of the expense reimbursements cited in the letter were reimbursements for mileage during the reporting period. Ms. Gilstrap's services were for generic fundraising activities. In cases where an activity was specifically undertaken for a fundraising effort, all expense are paid on the funds raised ratio as required by the FEC. I appreciate you bringing the incorrect committee identification to my attention. Every effort is made to file accurate and timely reports with the Commission.
