In response to your request regarding the administrative expenses for the Committee, please note that the committee is very small and does not require an office location. There are no employees of the Committee. The Committee does pay for accounting and compliance/record keeping services. The Committee has been fortunate enough to secure volunteers for additional work over the years. If any of these volunteers should incur any costs, these costs are reimbursed immediately and reported on Schedule B supporting Line 21(b). If you have any questions please contact me. Bill Harris.
